Comment. For meaning of two designations for heavy-duty flatcars, [ ] 25X1 [ ] is compared with the last reported period, the numbers of heavy-duty flatcars claimed by the Soviets decreased. This indicates that the Soviets did not carry out large-scale transportation operations, for which heavy-duty flatcars were required. The only exception to this picture is 18 June, when a larger number of flatcars was required by the Russians in the Erfurt railroad district for shipment of undetermined goods.
